Goldilocks and the Three Bears - Hollywood

The three bears load up their trailer and leave Yellowstone Park for a vacation in Hollywood, California. When Papa Bear, Mama Bear and Baby Bear take a walk, Goldilocks and her pet duck stumble upon their campsite where the porridge is hot and the bed is just right! 50's rock, country and pop tunes add fun to this updated story.

Magic Teakettle - Japan

A teakettle is placed over the fire for the tea ceremony and it sprouts a tail, a head and the four legs of a Tanuki (a raccoon-like animal found in Japan). Fearing it, the priest returns the Tanuki to Suzu, the peddler woman. Grateful for her kindness, the Tanuki reveals he is Bumbuku Chagama, a teakettle of good luck who can perform acrobatic tricks.

Aesop's Fables - Greece

Aesop, born a slave in 6th Century BC, is heralded as one of the great moral teachers of all time. Traveling to countries around the Mediterranean Sea, he tells entertaining stories of animals with human foibles and strengths. One of the stories he tells is the "Tortoise and the Hare" teaching that "slow and steady, wins the race."
